

ULTIMATE SCAVENGER HUNT

The galleries are full of incredible artifacts and specimens, but there are some that are particularly outstanding! Look for the numbered stars in front of three items in each gallery and select the one you think is the ultimate of its kind!

STARS 1-3: Welcome Gallery

The Welcome Gallery showcases detailed miniatures of objects and places that you'll learn more about as you explore the galleries. Which is the most marvelous miniature?

- 1. Amauti (for doll)
- 2. Nonsuch Rigging Model
- 3. City Hall Mini Replica

STARS 4-6: Earth History Gallery

Marvel at these fossils of enormous creatures of ages past. Who is the ultimate of these three?

- 4. Parasaurolophus
- 5. Pliosaur
- 6. Megatherium (Giant Ground Sloth)

STARS 7-9: Arctic/Subarctic Gallery

Diorama artists Clarence Tillenius and Ota Pavlik created these fantastic representations of life in northern Manitoba. Which one is the most awe-inspiring diorama?

- 7. Polar Bear
- 8. Caribou
- 9. Kettle Rapids Bridge

STAR 10: Boreal Forest Gallery

Some insects in Manitoba's Boreal Forest have eyespots on their wings: markings that make them look like bigger animals to deceive and deflect predators. Which of these moths is the most convincing mimic?

- Polyphemus Moth (1)
- Io Moth (3)
- Cecropia Moth (4)

STARS 11-13: Hudson's Bay Company Gallery

Indigenous technologies enabled efficient travel across the lands and waterways of Manitoba, and newcomers relied on these inventions to survive during the Fur Trade. Which is the most ingenious innovation?

- 11. Canoe
- 12. Snowshoes
- 13. Kayak

STARS 14-16: Parklands Gallery

The male elk uses his own pee as perfume, while the Northern Shrike prefers to spear grasshoppers on the Hawthorn bush to attract a mate. Then there's the Killdeer, who pretends she has broken her wing in order to distract predators away from her eggs! Which animal from the Parklands has the strangest behaviour?

- 14. Elk
- 15. Northern Shrike
- 16. Killdeer

STARS 17-19: Parklands Gallery

First Nations and Métis artists have a long tradition of adorning moccasins with beautiful designs, using glass beads, porcupine quills, and silk for embroidery. Which moccasin design do you like best?

- 17. Man's shoe, Nakota (6)
- 18. Child's shoe, Dakota (5)
- 19. Woman's shoe, Métis/Cree (5)

STAR 20: Prairies Gallery

Plants in the prairies have some spiffy looking seeds! Which one is the most fascinating?

- Needle and Thread Grass
- Rough Cocklebur
- Manitoba Maple

STARS 21-23: Winnipeg Gallery

Seek out these older versions of technologies we use today. Which is the ultimate retro machine?
